NOTE—Should the number of candidates who have applied to be examined in any one of the above centres fall short of thirty, the candidate that submitted that centre must be prepared to proceed, at their own expense, to the nearest centre where the examination may be held. Trade notices will be given to the candidates concerned.

2. No person will be taken of the application of any candidate who selects a centre which is not in the share list, and no candidate will be allowed to access more than one centre. No candidate will be allowed to be allowed to change the place of examination entered in his application, which must be the place where he is employed or ordinarily resident, or should it not be a centre, the place nearest to the place where the examination is held. A candidate appearing for examination at a centre other than the one mentioned by him in his application must be prepared to have his examination cancelled.

4. In addition to the above centres, the Commissioner will be prepared to arrange for the holding of the Brevet examination in any of the subjects mentioned, at any other place, if it is satisfied that not fewer than thirty candidates are likely to enter themselves for examination, and it is advisable to make such place a centre. Application for the advance of such place or places in the list of centres should be made to the Commissioner through the local educational or other authorities concerned before the 21st August. Ordinarily, however, only one place will be appointed a centre for each district.

5. The oral and practical examinations in each subject or require them will be held at those places and where satisfactory arrangements can be made for the conduct of such examinations.

N.B.—In regard to Disappointments, in the case of each of the Oral and Practical examinations as may be held before the written examination, candidates are recommended to refer to Part I-2 of the Post St. George Gazette, from time to time.

c. Candidates whose examinations, either written or oral and practical, cannot be arranged for at any place near, or close to, Mysore, proceed to Madras or to the nearest centre where they are held in the subjects in which they appear.

7. Heads of institutions are requested to see, before the certificate at the foot of the application is signed by them, that their institutions have been progressed by competent authorities, as stated in Annex 1, in relation to the Technical subjects and for the grades is them brought up by their pupils.

NOTE—Heads of institutions responsible for Geobase Abstracts only should not sign the certificate at the foot of the application form filed in by any of their people coming up for any of the Technical Examinations.

8. All papers coming up from the same institution must select the same action, and the applications of all of them should be forwarded together (along with a covering letter stating the number of applications) by the head of that institution, no applications of any private candidates being enclosed with these applications.

9. Each candidate must, whenever the syllabus requires it, submit, before the last August, the necessary drawing, plan, section, fold book, museum, or other "special work." Each of the drawings, or, substituted, must be entered on the name of the candidate, the subject and grade of manuscript for which he appears and the course at which he appears, and must be offered to be his own student work by the head of the institution or office to which he belongs, or by an officer of the Public Works Department not below the rank of Surveyor, by a District Board Engineer, by the Engineer of the Corporation of Madras, or by an Engineer of any Railway Company.

Candidates are specially warned that no certified works will be valued by examiners unless the certificate of authorship is quite satisfactory, and specially clearly the person of whom it was procured in the execution of each work and unless the examiners are satisfied as to the identity and qualifications of the persons executing the work. Further, if any candidate wishes to say certified works submitted by pupils from Technical or other departmental schools, the Commission will be supplied in accordance with the authorities concerned, the withdrawal of the departmental privileges enjoyed by the schools. Persons candidates, whose certified works are in any way suggested by the examiners, will be liable to have their examinations scrutinized and also to be deferred from appearing for any of the examinations under the control of the Commission for each term of years as the Commission may think fit.

It must be particularly noted that the drawings, etc., of each candidate should be submitted in a separate roll for each subject and for each grade (i.e., the drawings, etc., for a number of subjects should not be rolled up together, and that the drawings, etc., of a number of candidates should not be sent in one and the same roll. Also, as the contents of each roll for each subject, each candidate should enter the following particulars (a) :-

- |                         |  |
|-------------------------|--|
| (1) Name of candidate,  | (4) Grade, and                             |
| (2) Place of residence, | (5) Total number of drawings in each roll. |
| (3) Subject.            |  |

As the application has to be kept in the office and as the drawings, etc., have to be forwarded to the examiners, the application itself should be sent in a separate cover, and not rolled up with the drawings, etc.

A candidate who failed, or having applied, did not appear, at a previous examination, shall submit fresh drawings, etc. The drawings, etc., submitted will on no account be returned.

10. Candidates must send in their applications made out in English in printed form as that they send the Commission's office in or before the last August, after which date no applications will be received. Only one form of application should be used by each candidate, although he may bring up several subjects and make up for different grades.

11. Candidates in the several should obtain the required application forms from the treasury of the bank in which they are resident or of the district to which they belong. Candidates who are students of Madras should apply for application forms at the office of the Commissioner for Government Examinations, Old College, Nankingallem, and not to the Collector of Madras.

F.E.—No notice will be taken of any application from candidates in the several requesting to be supplied with application forms from this office.

12. The following is the scale of fees to be paid by candidates for admission to the examinations :-

	Elementary, Intermediate, Advanced.
	Rs.	Rs.	Ps.
For each subject .. .. .	5	8	10

F.E.—No candidate will be permitted to come up for examination in more than one grade in the same subject at the same time.

13. The prescribed fee must be paid in every case into a Government Treasury, or, if at Madras, into the Bank of Madras, and the receipt given by the Treasury Officer or the Bank of Madras, attached to the application, which must in every case reach the Commission's office on or before the 15th August. On no account will the fee be received in the Commission's office, whether sent in cash or by Post Office order. No application will be registered unless it reaches the Commission's office by the date prescribed.

Notes.—At Madras, in the case of all pupils, the fee should be collected by the Headmaster and sent in a lump sum to the Bank of Madras together with two lists of the pupils, one of which will be returned by the Bank and the other signed and returned to the Headmaster. The latter list should be forwarded to this office along with the applications of the candidates. The necessary form for this purpose will be supplied by this office to Headmasters on application.

14. Each application should be sent direct to the undersigned, post paid, unopened and addressed as follows, the receipt for the fee paid being carefully retained by it.

E.C.—Candidates are warned that the application itself should not be mixed with any drawings, plans, surveys, field books, notebooks, or other "certified works" that may be sent, but should be submitted in a separate cover.

[Application for admission to the Government Technical Examinations]

To

The Secretary to the Commission for Government Examinations,

Stagunathan, Madras, S.W.

N.B.—Candidates anxious to ensure themselves that their applications have been received, should enclose an addressed post card in their respective applications. The post card should bear the candidate's address only and no other writing. Such post cards will be returned to them in due course with the "Returned" stamp of the office impressed upon them. No other form of acknowledgment except that required by the postal rules regarding registered letters can possibly be given nor will any notice be taken of any notice from any candidate inquiring whether his application has been received. Specially stamped cards will be supplied.

13. Candidates should write their names, their father's names and their home names distinctly and in full in their applications and give their addresses in full also; if "Other Hindus", they should state in column 2 of their applications whether they are "Hindoo-Brahmins, Caste Hindus", or "Panchamas". Applicants defective in any particular will be returned.

Note.—The acceptance or publication of candidates, or the appointments held by them should invariably be stated—in full—in column 13 of their applications.

14. The fee paid still, as an act whatever, is returned, are will it be covered for a subsequent examination. Neither will any money be paid any have been inadvertently paid to returned. Candidates are advised to study the regulations carefully and strictly directions, before receiving their fee, that they fulfil the prescribed conditions of admission to the examination and that they are, if necessary, present, at their own expense, before the board of the examination centre selected by them, for the purpose of undergoing the Written, or the Oral and Practical examination.

15. Candidates for the Intermediate or Advanced examinations whose names have already been published in the Gazette as having passed a particular stage or stages in subjects in which the examination is divided into stages, or as having passed the Intermediate (also Preliminary) where the examination is of two grades—Intermediate and Advanced—must in their applications state the date and page of the Gazette in which their names appear and their number in the list of successful candidates.

16. The examinations in the subjects under "Drawing, etc.", will be conducted in the order of time and subjects set forth in the following table. Candidates will not be allowed to come up to more than one of the subjects included together for the same time on the same day in the table below, or for more than one grade of examination in the same subject in the same year:—

No. 32.—In virtue of the powers delegated under clause XI of the aforesaid Notification No. 283, dated 10th July 1909, published on pages 1207 and 1208 of the Port St. George Gazette, dated 24th September 1909, Part I, and in pursuance of Notification No. 38, dated 26th October 1909, published on page 1492 of the Port St. George Gazette, dated 3rd November 1909, Part II, the Commissioner of Salt, Alkali, and Soda, Revenue Board, provides the following rules for the issue, etc., of licences under section 12 of the Madras Alkali Act, 1 of 1861, for the tapping of toddy-tielding trees and, for the distilling of sweet toddy therefrom in pots or other receptacles, locally named inferrety with, lime, for the purpose of manufacturing jaggery, or of being sold as such as a beverage, in the South Canara and Malabar divisions, exclusive of the Wynad, taluk Anjengo, Tangassari, the southern half of the taluk of British Cochin, and the Anjapali taluk. These rules will come into force from October 1911:—

(1) Licences under these rules shall, confer the privileges of manufacture and sale of sweet toddy and shall be issued by the Inspector or the Assistant Inspector of the Circle free to local sale manufacture. Entries of jaggery to those engaged in the sale of inferrety or sweet toddy and to trans-shipment distilling of inferrety or sweet toddy for domestic consumption. Provided that licences will be issued in the name of the licensee only.

(2) No licence to tap for sweet toddy shall be issued to any toddy sleepers or distiller or to any tapper employed by such sleepers or distiller while in such employment.

(3) The currency of the licence shall, except as provided in the next clause, be from the date of issue till the 30th of September following.

(4) For the convenience of licensees, licences will be issued during the three days immediately preceding the middle revenue year to take effect from the commencement of such year, provided that no trans-shipment shall be drawn except during the currency of such licence. The licensee shall not tap for fermented toddy.

(5) Sweet toddy, if for jaggery manufacture, shall be removed from the tree only between 5 a.m. and 7 p.m., and, if for sale or use as a beverage, only between sunrise and sunset. Outside these periods no sweet toddy shall be kept in the bliss or field containing the trees tapped, except the freshly-distilled toddy contained in the pots attached to the spouts of the trees.

(6) Sweet toddy must be at once manufactured into jaggery or sold or used as a beverage, and no such toddy shall be kept by the tapper until the day following that on which it is drawn.

(7) No toddy drawn under these rules shall be conveyed to a shop for the sale of fermented toddy, or sold to any person licensed to tap or sell fermented toddy except for his immediate personal consumption.

(8) The licensee is subject to inspection or surveillance by the Collector, or the Deputy Commissioner, Southern Division, in the event of a breach of its conditions or of the commission of any offence against the Alkali law on the part of the licensee or of any person in his employment, and no fresh licence shall be granted to such persons without the previous permission of the Assistant Commissioner, Calicut Sub-division.

The Standard Barometer and Thermometers are read at 5 A.M., 10 A.M., 4 P.M., and 8 P.M., and the daily means are obtained by the application of hourly corrections, deduced from twenty years' observations. The station of the Barometer is twenty-five feet above the level of the sea, and the receiver of the Rain Gauge is ten feet above the ground. The wind, rate and general weather registered are for the current Civil Day—from midnight to midnight.

The total quantity of rain collected since January 1st is 1.78 inches, the average for the season passed being 11.94 inches.

CHAPTER II.

REGISTRATION AND NUMBERING OF HACKNEY CARRIAGES.

4. Every hackney carriage shall be annually registered by the Commissioner.

5. (1) Any person who is desirous of having any vehicle registered as a hackney carriage shall apply to the Commissioner, and shall submit such vehicle for such inspection as the Commissioner may direct.

(2) The person in whose name any carriage is registered shall be deemed to be the owner of such carriage for the purposes of this Act.

6. Every applicant under section 5 shall be entitled to registration unless the Commissioner is of opinion that the vehicle is not fit for public use: Provided that no vehicle shall be registered in the name of a minor.

7. (1) The Commissioner shall at the time of registration deliver a license duly signed by him to the applicant.

(2) A license granted under this section shall be in force for the year of registration.

8. The following particulars shall be entered in the register and in the license to be given to the applicant:—

First.—The number in the register of the hackney carriage.

Second.—The name and residence of the owner and the place where the carriage is kept.

Third.—A description of the carriage.

Fourth.—The number of horses or other animals to be employed in drawing such carriage and, if the carriage is drawn or pushed by men, the number of men to be so employed.

Fifth.—The number of passengers such carriage is licensed to carry.

Sixth.—The date of the license.

9. A fee shall be paid to the Commissioner for each license in accordance with the following scale:—

(8) Such license shall be in force for the year of registration and the fee payable therefor shall be one rupee unless the license relates solely to a carriage of the description specified in clause (f) of section 9, in which case the fee shall be four annas.

Particulars of license to be registered.

20. The particulars of every license which shall be granted under the provisions of section 19 shall be entered in a register by the Commissioner, and every person applying shall be furnished with a certified copy of such particulars on payment of a fee of two annas.

Penalty for driving without license or using license.

21. If at any time fifteen days after the time when a license should have been obtained any person acts as the driver of a hackney carriage without having a license in force for the time being, or, having a license, fails to carry it with him when driving a hackney carriage or transfers or lends it or allows it to be used by any person, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty rupees.

Suspension of license by Commissioner.

22. The Commissioner may suspend for such period as he thinks fit the license of the driver of a hackney carriage whenever in his opinion such driver is unfit to be so employed.

Penalty for person who knowingly suffers any person, not duly licensed under this Act, to act as driver of such carriage shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees.

23. The owner of a hackney carriage who knowingly suffers any person, not duly licensed under this Act, to act as driver of such carriage shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees.

Provided that such owner and such unlicensed driver shall be subject to all the provisions of this Act for any act done or omitted to be done by such driver during such employment in like manner as if such driver had been duly licensed.

Issue of badge to driver.

24. (1) The Commissioner shall, at the time of granting a license to any driver of a hackney carriage, furnish him with a metal badge punched or marked with the number of his license.

Driver to wear badge.

(2) Every driver to whom such badge is delivered shall, at all times while acting as driver, or while attending before any magistrate, wear such badge exposed to view.

Penalty.

(3) In case any such driver omits to wear such badge exposed to view while acting as driver or attending before a magistrate, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten rupees.

Delivery of lost or obliterated badge.

(4) Whenever the number on any badge becomes indistinct or is obliterated during the term of the license, and also whenever any badge is lost or stolen, the person to whom the license relating to any such badge has been granted shall deliver such badge or notify its loss and shall produce such license to the Commissioner, and such person shall then be entitled to have a new license and badge delivered to him upon payment of half the fee mentioned in section 9. Such new license shall be in force for the year of registration.

Penalty.

(5) Every person licensed under the authority of this Act who uses or wears the badge granted to him after the writing thereon has become indistinct or obliterated shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

Delivery of expired license and badge.

25. (1) Upon the expiration or other determination of any license granted to a driver under this Act he shall deliver such license and his badge to the Commissioner.

Penalty.

(2) Every driver who neglects for three days to deliver such expired license and badge to the Commissioner, and also every person who uses, or wears, or fraudulently detains any such expired license or badge, and every person to whom any expired license or badge has been delivered who lends, gives away, mortgages or sells such badge to any other person and every person who detains, wears or uses any license or badge of any other person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty rupees.

Penalty for person who for the purpose of deception uses or wears any badge resembling or intended to resemble any badge granted under the authority of this Act.

26. Every person who for the purpose of deception uses or wears any badge resembling or intended to resemble any badge granted under the authority of this Act shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and in the case of a subsequent conviction under this section with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month.

27. Any police officer may seize and take away any expired or counterfeit badge, or any badge in respect of which an offence under section 25 has been committed, whenever the same may be found, and deliver the same to the Commissioner.

Seizure of expired or counterfeit badge.

28. Whenever any driver is summoned to appear before any magistrate to answer any charge preferred against him under this Act, he shall carry with him his license, and produce the same if required so to do, and any driver who on such requisition refuses to produce such license shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five rupees.

Penalty for failing to produce license when required.

29. On the conviction of any driver for any offence under this Act the magistrate shall cause to be endorsed on his license the nature of the offence, the date of the conviction, and the amount of the penalty inflicted.

Endorsement under Act to be endorsed on license.

30. (1) On the conviction of any driver for any offence under this Act the magistrate may direct the cancellation of the license of such driver or its suspension for such time as he thinks fit.

Cancellation or suspension of license on conviction.

(2) For such purpose he may require the driver or any other person who may be in possession of the license or badge to deliver up the same.

Delivery of license or badge on conviction.

(3) If such driver or other person refuses or neglects to deliver up the license or badge, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten rupees.

Penalty.

(4) The magistrate shall forward every license and every badge delivered up to him under sub-section (2) to the Commissioner together with a memorandum of his sentence in the case.

Magistrate to forward license and badge delivered up to him under sub-section (2) to the Commissioner with a memorandum of his sentence.

(5) The Commissioner shall enter the fact of such sentence in the register referred to in section 20, and shall either suspend or cancel such license according to the direction of the magistrate; and if it has been suspended, the Commissioner shall on application, at the end of the period of suspension, re-deliver such license or badge to the person to whom it was granted.

CHAPTER IV.

FARE, HIRING, AND FINE FOR HIRE.

31. (1) The owner or driver of every hackney carriage may demand and receive for the hire of such carriage such fare as may be fixed and published by the Commissioner with the sanction of the Local Government duly notified.

Maximum fare for hire of hackney carriages.

Provided that any agreement entered into to accept a fare lower than the fare so fixed shall be binding.

admitted.

Penalty for refusing to let hackney carriage be hired.

Penalty for breach of any of the provisions of this Act.

(3) The driver of every hackney carriage standing or plying for hire shall have with him a copy of such list and table and shall on demand produce the same for the inspection of any police officer or for the information of any hirer of, or passenger by, his carriage under penalty on conviction by a magistrate of a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

24. (1) The driver of every hackney carriage standing or plying for hire shall drive such carriage to any place named by the hirer which is not more than three miles from the place of hiring in the case of vehicles of the description specified in clause (f) of section 2 and six miles in the case of any other vehicle.

(2) When any such carriage is hired by time, the driver thereof shall drive the same at a rate of speed not less than that prescribed by the Commissioner.

(3) A driver failing, without reasonable excuse, to comply with the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

25. The driver of every hackney carriage shall carry in or upon such carriage without additional charge such quantity of luggage for every person hiring the same as may be prescribed by by-law under this Act.

26. Any owner or driver of any hackney carriage who demands more than the fare to which he is legally entitled or without reasonable excuse refuses to let such carriage for hire shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees and to pay such further sum by way of compensation to the party complaining as to the magistrate may seem just; and such further sum shall, in default of immediate payment, be levied as if it were a due.

27. Every driver of a hackney carriage, who

(a) is drunk during his employment,

(b) makes use of insulting or abusive language or gestures,

(c) stands elsewhere than at some stand or other place appointed for the purpose or listens for the purpose of being hired in or upon any public street, road or place,

the party default of magistrate.

39. (1) In case of any dispute between the hire and the driver of any hackney carriage, either may require the other to proceed forthwith to the nearest magistrate's court; and the then sitting magistrate shall hear and determine the dispute in a summary way.

Provision is made of the proceedings between hire and driver.

(2) If no magistrate be then sitting, either party may require the other to proceed to the nearest police officer who shall enter the complaint in his diary and require the parties to appear before the magistrate at his next sitting.

(3) On failure of either party to appear before the magistrate in pursuance of a requisition under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or to attend the court at any subsequent sitting to which the case may be adjourned the magistrate may decide the case ex parte, and his decision shall be binding on both parties.

40. (1) If any person who has hired a hackney carriage refuses to pay to the owner or driver thereof the fare payable under this Act, the magistrate may order payment of such fare, and also of reasonable compensation for loss of time and in default of immediate payment such fare and compensation may be recovered as a fine.

Provision is made of refusal to pay fare.

(2) If any person who has used any such carriage attempts to evade payment of the legal fare, or any portion thereof, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees in addition to any payment which may have been ordered under sub-section (1).

Penalty.

41. (1) Every person who wilfully tears, destroys, defaces, stillivates, or removes any plate, list of fares, table of distances or driver's badge kept under the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees.
